OUR LEGAL POSITION

And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus (Ephesians 2:6).

Many Christians know that the Lord Jesus is seated at the right hand of God but haven't fully understood what that means for them. The Bible says God raised Christ from the dead and set Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places (Ephesians 1:20).

The Word tells us exactly where that place is: "Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named..." (Ephesians 1:21). That's the place of absolute authority. And the remarkable truth is that God raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. Your place isn't merely near Christ; it's in Him. That's your legal position.

Think of the President of the United States. He may be at home with his family, or travelling in a motorcade, or walking through a public space, but his legal office doesn't change because of his physical location. Whatever he says or authorises carries the full authority of the office he occupies. His location may vary, but his position remains the same.

That's exactly what God wants you to understand about yourself. Though you live on earth and carry out your daily responsibilities here, your legal office is with Christ in the heavenly realms, far above every principality, power, might, dominion, and every name that is named. This is where God has positioned you.

Therefore, when you speak in the Name of Jesus, you speak from that place of authority. When you exercise dominion over circumstances, sickness, or the forces of darkness, you're acting from your legal position in Christ.

Many around you may see you as an ordinary person, just as someone might casually meet a president without recognising who he is. But your effectiveness isn't determined by what others know about you; it's determined by what you know about yourself. Live with the consciousness of your heavenly position. Know who you are and from where you function. You're seated together with Christ, far above every power of darkness, and that's the basis of your authority and victory in life.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for raising me up together with Christ and seating me with Him in the heavenly realms, far above every principality, power, might, and dominion. Today, I live with the consciousness of my exalted position in Christ and exercise authority from that place of victory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

BORN INTO GOD

For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body... (1 Corinthians 12:13).

When you were born again, something extraordinary took place. The Holy Spirit immersed you into Christ. You were born into God. The Bible says, "For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body..." (1 Corinthians 12:13).

This isn't referring to water baptism but to the work of the Holy Spirit in the New Birth. He immersed you into Christ and brought you into an inseparable union with Him. This is what the Lord Jesus spoke of when He said, "At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you" (John 14:20). What He declared concerning Himself has now become your experience.

Therefore, just as He could say, "I am in the Father, and the Father is in me," you've been brought into that same union. This is the miracle of the new creation. You're born into God. You're in Him, and He's in you. His life is your life, His nature is your nature, and His righteousness is your righteousness. This is your reality.

Your oneness with God isn't a promise you're waiting to experience; it's the life you've already received: "But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit" (1 Corinthians 6:17). Walk in the consciousness of this divine union. Declare it; think and live accordingly.

The life of God is in you, and everything that belongs to Christ has become your inheritance because you're born of Him and born into Him: "For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ" (Galatians 3:27).

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the miracle of the New Birth in which I was immersed into Christ and brought into eternal union with you. I live with the consciousness that I'm in you, and you're in me. Your life is my life, your nature is my nature, and I manifest your glory, righteousness, wisdom and grace today and always, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE HOLY SPIRIT IS NOT 'JUNIOR' GOD

Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty (2 Corinthians 3:17).

Many readily acknowledge God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ but fail to recognise the Holy Spirit for who He truly is. Some think of Him merely as an influence, a power, or an unseen force at work in their lives. But the Holy Spirit isn't an influence or a power separate from God. He is God.

The Lord Jesus revealed this truth when He said, "Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me?...the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works" (John 14:10). The Father who dwelt in Jesus is the Holy Spirit. Every miracle, every healing, every act of divine power that Jesus wrought was by the Holy Spirit.

Never think of the Holy Spirit as though He were less than the Father or less than Jesus. He isn't "junior" God. He's the Spirit of the Father. He's one with the Father and one with the Son. To know Him is to know God, because He's Himself God. This is why your relationship with the Holy Spirit is so vital. You're not relating to an influence; you're walking with God Himself.

He teaches you, guides you, strengthens you, and reveals the will of the Father to you. As you recognise His divine Person, your fellowship with Him becomes richer, your confidence in His leading grows stronger, and His glory is manifested in and through your life in a greater measure.

Recognise and honour the Holy Spirit as God. Listen to Him, and yield to His guidance. He's the One who reveals the Father, glorifies the Lord Jesus, and works in you both to will and to do of God's good pleasure.

PRAYER

Dear Holy Spirit, I recognise and honour you as God. Thank you for your presence in my life, for teaching me, guiding me, and revealing the Father's will to me. I yield myself completely to your leading, and through you I continually manifest the wisdom, power and glory of God, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE SINLESS SUBSTITUTE

For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins (Hebrews 10:4).

The Bible lets us know that due to Adam's transgression, every man born into this world was born into sin. It says by one man's disobedience, referring to Adam, many were made sinners (Romans 5:19). And there was no permanent salvation from sin until Jesus Christ.

To provide permanent salvation, the sacrifice for sin had to be sinless. But there was none. No man qualified. This is why the blood of animals could never save mankind. The sacrifices offered under the Law had to be repeated continually because, as the Bible says, "it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins."

An animal is a lower order of being. How then could the blood of a lower being take away the sins of man or purify the human soul? It couldn't. A sinless man had to take our place. That's why the Lord Jesus came into the world. He had to be born of a virgin so His life wouldn't be touched by sinful man. Every human life comes from the seed of a man, but the life of the Lord Jesus came from the Word of God.

The angel came to Mary with God's message, declaring that she would bear a Son who would save His people from their sins. Mary received that Word, and she conceived. The Word of God is seed, and from that incorruptible seed the Lord Jesus was born.

John opens his Gospel with these remarkable words: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (John 1:1). This same Word by which God created all things became flesh and dwelt among us. He was the living Word manifested in human form.

Untainted by Adam's fallen nature, He alone qualified to become the perfect sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. Blessed be God! Jesus became the sinless substitute who took your place. Through His perfect sacrifice, you've received eternal life and His righteousness, and have been brought into everlasting fellowship with the Father.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for your wonderful plan of redemption. Thank you for sending Jesus, the living Word made flesh, to become the perfect and sinless sacrifice for our salvation. I rejoice that through His finished work, I've received righteousness, and eternal life, and I have been brought into everlasting fellowship with you, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

RECOGNISE THE PERSON OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee... (Psalm 9:10).

Many Christians know about the Holy Spirit, believe in Him, and acknowledge His existence, but they don't really know Him. As a result, they fail to enjoy the fullness of His ministry in their lives.

The Holy Spirit is more than an influence, a feeling, or an experience. He's more than a divine power that comes upon you from time to time. He's a Person. He's God, and He lives in you. There's a difference between receiving the Holy Spirit and recognising Him.

Many have received Him, yet they haven't learned to recognise His presence, appreciate His ministry, or respond to Him as the divine Person who lives within them. But when you recognise Him, everything changes. His guidance becomes clearer, His ministry becomes more real, and your confidence in Him grows.

Recognising the Holy Spirit changes the way you live every day. You're confident that God is with you and in you. You become more conscious of His wisdom than your own thoughts, more confident in His leading than in your own reasoning, and more attentive to His voice than to the circumstances around you.

Train yourself to recognise His presence in your daily walk. Acknowledge Him in everything you do. Honour Him as the One who lives in you, walks in you, and works through you. The more you recognise Him, the more naturally His wisdom, power and glory will be expressed through your life.

PRAYER

Dear Holy Spirit, thank you for living in me. I recognise your presence, honour your Person, and respond to your guidance with joy. My heart is sensitive to your voice, and today, I walk in the light of your wisdom, manifesting your power, glory and righteousness, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 6

FELLOWSHIP—OUR NATURAL WAY OF LIFE

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth... (John 16:13).

Many imagine that fellowship with the Holy Spirit is difficult or reserved for a select few. But that's not true. Fellowship with the Holy Spirit is our natural way of life. It's the life of every child of God who understands and acknowledges the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

One of the most important things you'll ever learn is to listen to the Holy Spirit and act on His Word. That's the best place to be in life. As you train yourself to listen to Him, your confidence in His guidance grows stronger. You'll no longer live in uncertainty, wondering whether it's your own thoughts, your mind, or the voice of the enemy.

The Lord Jesus said in John 10:27, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me." He also said in Luke 8:10, "…Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God…." These mysteries are communicated and unveiled to us by the Holy Spirit. You'll always know when He's speaking because He speaks in line with the Word of God.

Therefore, the more you listen to the Holy Spirit and promptly act on what He tells you, the more sensitive your spirit becomes to His guidance. Before long, responding to Him becomes natural to you. His delight is to guide you into all truth and make you a wonder to your world.

Therefore, cultivate fellowship with Him. Listen attentively, respond willingly, and trust His guidance. As you do, you'll walk with assurance, free from confusion, because He always leads you in love and in the path of God's perfect will. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Holy Spirit, thank you for your constant guidance in my life. My heart is attentive to your voice, and I'm quick to act on your Word. I walk confidently in your wisdom, free from confusion, because you're continually guiding me in the path of life, light, righteousness and victory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE PRICE WAS FULLY PAID

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all (Isaiah 53:6).

When Jesus hung on the Cross, He wasn't there because of anything He had done. He was there because of us. The Bible says, "...the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all" (Isaiah 53:6). Every sin, every transgression, every act of unrighteousness was laid upon Him. He became the sin-bearer for the whole world.

When that was consummated in the realm of the spirit, something happened that had never happened before: The Father turned His back on Jesus because our sins had been laid on Him. God is so holy that He doesn't look upon sin. Bearing the sins of the world, Jesus cried out, "...My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:46).

This was why He prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane, "...if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt" (Matthew 26:39). He never wanted to be separated from the Father, yet He willingly accepted it because of us.

In the mind of divine justice, every one of us was on that Cross. We were in Him in His crucifixion. We were in Him in His death. When He died, we died. In that death, every man paid for his sins: every man who lived before the Cross, everyone who lived at that time, and everyone who would ever be born into this world.

His blood was divine, and it was adequate. You need never pay again for your sins. Years ago, I knew a guy who did something wrong and gave himself seven knocks on the head as punishment. When I asked him why he did it, he simply said, "Because I did something wrong." He didn't understand the Gospel.

Jesus already bore the punishment for sin. No more punishment remains for those who have accepted His sacrifice. Hebrews 10:14 says, "For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified," and continues in the 26th verse, "…there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins." Those who reject His sacrifice choose to bear the consequences themselves, but no one could ever pay for sin apart from Christ.

What a glorious Gospel! The price has been paid in full. Walk in the liberty of this truth. Refuse every form of guilt, condemnation, or self-punishment. The Lord Jesus bore your judgment completely, and through His finished work you've been freely justified before the Father. Hallelujah!

CONFESSION

The Lord Jesus bore my sins and paid the full price for my justification. I rejoice in this glorious truth and live in the liberty of Christ, free from guilt, condemnation, and every consciousness of sin. I walk in the light of my justification, knowing that the price has been paid in full, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

GOD'S WORD CARRIES HIS LIFE

It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life (John 6:63).

The Lord Jesus made a profound statement when He said, "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." What did He mean? He didn't say His words were merely powerful or inspiring. Rather, He said they are spirit and they are life.

It reveals something extraordinary: everything that comes out of God carries His life. That doesn't mean it's His Person but that it carries His life. It's like your DNA; it can be traced from something as little as a strand of your hair because it carries your unique identity.

In the same way, everything that comes out of God carries His identity, His power, and His life. This is why God's Word is unlike any other. When you receive His Word, you receive the life it carries.

It helps us understand what happened with the handkerchiefs and aprons from Paul that were used to heal the sick and cast out demons (Acts 19:11-12). It wasn't the Person of the Holy Spirit who was in those materials.

It was the impartation of God's life and power.

Paul had received the Word, and that divine life was imparted even to the things that came in contact with him. Approach God's Word with this understanding. Isaiah 55:11 says, "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please...." God's Word doesn't merely announce His purpose but contains the efficacy and power to fulfil it.

Think of a seed. Within that tiny seed is everything required to produce the tree it represents. Always be quick to receive God's Word and confidently act on it. Let it dwell richly in your heart. As you do, you'll witness its inherent power, producing righteousness, health, wisdom, victory, and every blessing it conveys. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the living power of your Word. I receive your Word into my spirit with joy, knowing that it carries your life, your power, and your divine nature. I'm continually transformed by your Word as I live by it and it produces in me all that you have ordained, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

CULTIVATE YOUR SPIRITUAL CONSCIOUSNESS

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned (1 Corinthians 2:14).

When you were born again, you were born into God's realm. That's why it isn't difficult for you to accept the reality and spirituality of the Kingdom of God or the existence of the spirit realm. That's where you live—your native environment. You're a spirit being; you have a soul and live in a body.

God is a Spirit (John 4:24), and He is the Father of spirits (Hebrews 12:9). Only a spirit can understand spirit. This is why your spiritual eyes must be open to the realities of God's Kingdom. The natural man can't understand the things of the Spirit because he doesn't live in that realm. To him, spiritual realities are foolishness.

But you're different. You're born of the Spirit; therefore, you belong in the spirit realm. This is one of the great blessings of the new creation. God isn't a mystery to you. Through the New Birth, you've received the capacity to know Him and relate with Him. Your spirit responds to Him; there's a Spirit to spirit relationship and communication.

Furthermore, the Spirit of God bears witness with your spirit. He grants you understanding of spiritual truths and causes them to come alive in your spirit. Therefore, cultivate your spiritual consciousness. Train yourself to see beyond the limitations of the flesh. Let the Word of God shape your perception and educate your spirit.

The more you fellowship with the Father through His Word and by the Holy Spirit, the more natural it is for you to comprehend, apprehend, and walk in the provisions and realities of God's Kingdom. Never think of yourself as a mere natural man trying to understand spiritual things. You're a new creation, born of God and alive to the Spirit. And from that realm you exercise dominion, manifest God's wisdom, and reveal His glory to your world.

CONFESSION

I have understanding of spiritual realities. I walk in the consciousness of my inheritance and in the blessings of my place in Christ. I'm seated with Him, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and the limitations of this natural world. I manifest God's wisdom, life and glory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

GOD IS A SPIRIT

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth (John 4:24).

Many people struggle to understand the word "spirit" because it's a term that describes a reality beyond the grasp of the natural senses. The Greek word translated "spirit" is "pneuma," a word also used for wind. Why wind?

It's because you can feel its impact and see its effects, yet you can't see it with your physical eyes or fully explain its movements. The illustration helps us appreciate some characteristics of spirit but it doesn't define God's nature. When the Bible says, "God is a Spirit," it isn't describing God as an impersonal force without personality or form. Rather, it reveals His nature.

God is a Person. He has personality, purpose, intelligence, and will. The Scriptures make this even clearer through the Lord Jesus Christ, who said, "...he that hath seen me hath seen the Father..." (John 14:9). The Bible also declares that He's the express image of the Father's person (Hebrews 1:3).

If you want to know what the Father is like, look at Jesus. He's the perfect and complete revelation of the Father. In Christ, the invisible God has been made known. This understanding transforms your fellowship with God. You're not relating with an unknown power or an undefined spiritual force.

You're in fellowship with a real spiritual being, your heavenly Father, who has revealed Himself perfectly in Jesus Christ. Through the New Birth, you've been brought into a living relationship with Him, and by the Holy Spirit you know Him intimately. Blessed be God!

The One who created all things isn't a mystery; He revealed Himself in Christ Jesus, and through the Holy Spirit He lives in you. Walk in the joy and confidence of knowing Him personally.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for revealing yourself to me in the Lord Jesus Christ. I rejoice that I know you personally and live in fellowship with you through the Holy Spirit. My knowledge of you increases continually as I behold your glory in your Word, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE ATTITUDE OF STRONG FAITH

He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God (Romans 4:20).

The story of Abraham is the most inspiring story of faith in the Bible, which is why he's called the father of faith. He had every natural reason to faint or give up hope. But the Bible says he considered not the deadness of his own body, neither yet the barrenness of Sarah's womb.

Instead of yielding to the overwhelming conflicting evidence before him, he remained steadfast because he was fully persuaded that God was faithful to His Word. He was strong in faith, giving glory to God. Notice what the Holy Spirit reveals here: Abraham was giving glory to God; that's the attitude of strong faith.

Giving glory to God is more than a verbal expression; it's the outward manifestation of a heart fully persuaded of God's integrity. Abraham's confidence in God's promise found expression in the way he lived and honoured God. Throughout his life, he built altars, worshipped, and presented offerings before the Lord. His actions testified that he believed God's Word beyond the evidence of the senses.

There are practical expressions of giving glory to God. First, you testify by declaring what God has done and who He is. Every declaration of faith is an acknowledgement of His faithfulness. Secondly, you testify through your offerings. An offering is a sacred testimony before God. It declares your confidence in Him and your recognition of His grace and lordship over your life.

Thirdly, your daily life as a testimony: Your unwavering confidence, joy and steadfastness in all circumstances testify of God's greatness to those around you. This was how Abraham lived. Even when there seemed to be no natural reason for hope, he remained unwavering because he was fully persuaded that what God had promised, He was able also to perform (Romans 4:21).

Abraham's faith wasn't hidden; it was evident in his words, his worship, his giving, and his manner of life. Let this be your way of life. Refuse to be moved by circumstances. Let your words, your worship, your offerings, and your daily conduct continually give glory to God. That's the attitude and demeanour of strong faith, and it always leads to victory.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the faith you've imparted to my spirit. My life is a continual testimony of your greatness. I glorify you with my words, my worship, my offerings and my daily walk. I remain steadfast, fully persuaded that every Word you've spoken concerning me is fulfilled in my life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE SACREDNESS OF YOUR OFFERING

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness (1 Chronicles 16:29).

Your offering in Church isn't a mere collection or donation you make during a church service; it's a testimony before God. It's one of the ways you give glory to God. The Bible says Abraham was strong in faith, giving glory to God. When you study his life, you'll discover that he repeatedly worshipped God with offerings.

Isaac followed the same pattern, and Jacob did likewise. Why? They understood something profound: worshipping God with an offering is a testimony of your faith in Him and your recognition of Him as the only true God. Every offering testified to their unwavering confidence in God's faithfulness and their absolute persuasion that His Word could never fail.

Many people don't understand the sacredness of an offering. They think it's simply a donation, but an offering isn't a donation. A donation is gathered for a specific purpose, such as meeting a need, supporting a project, or helping the needy. The Scriptures acknowledge such donations.

Subscribe to the Rhapsody of Realities app, available on LoveWorld App Store, Apple App Store, and Google Play

But your offering is different. It's holy. It's an act of worship and a testimony presented before God. Therefore, when you give your offering, don't regard it as a routine part of a service or as a donation to charity. Present it consciously as your testimony of faith and worship before God.

With your offering, you're declaring that God is your source, your provider, and the One who has fulfilled His Word in your life. Every offering is an opportunity to honour Him and bear witness to His goodness, grace and unfailing faithfulness.

So, always give your offerings with this understanding, with reverence, faith, and joy. Never treat it casually, for it is a sacred testimony before God. Let your offering continually testify that your confidence is in Him alone and that your heart is fully persuaded of His integrity and His everlasting love.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the privilege of honouring you with my offerings. I present them before you always as sacred testimonies of my faith, my love, and my confidence in your unfailing Word. My heart is fully persuaded that you are faithful, and your Word never fails. I'm a living testimony of your grace and everlasting love, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 13

WHEN WE SHOUT, "GLORY!"

The voice of the LORD twists mighty oaks and strips the forests bare. In his Temple everyone shouts, "Glory!" (Psalm 29:9 NLT).

There're certain things we do by the Holy Spirit that some may not understand. Yet, every prompting of the Spirit has divine purpose. Sometimes, under His inspiration, we suddenly shout, "Glory!" To the natural mind, it may seem unusual but it's far more than an emotional outburst. It's a Spirit-inspired response to the majesty and power of God.

Psalm 29:9 unveils the significance of this; notice that it doesn't say, "In His temple everyone speaks of glory," nor does it say they whisper, "Glory." Rather, it says, "In His temple everyone shouts, 'Glory!'" It's the spontaneous declaration of those who have become conscious of God's manifest presence and sovereign power.

The verses that follow reveal why this is so significant: "The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD is enthroned as King forever. The LORD gives strength to his people; the LORD blesses his people with peace"

(Psalm 29:10-11 NIV). What an extraordinary progression! The Lord reigns over every flood, every circumstance, and every challenge of life.

Therefore, when the Holy Spirit prompts your heart to shout, “Glory!” you're responding in faith to His sovereign dominion and acknowledging His manifested power at work in your behalf. Learn to recognise and respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

Don't ignore those moments when your spirit is stirred to give a "glory" shout. Yield to Him with faith and joy, knowing that He never leads you aimlessly. As you do, you'll walk in the consciousness of His victory, His strength, and His abiding peace.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the privilege of walking in fellowship with the Holy Spirit. My heart is sensitive to His leading, and I respond with faith to every prompting. I rejoice in your sovereign power and gladly declare, even now, “Glory!” You reign forever and your victory, strength, and peace are manifested in my life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WE THINK DIFFERENTLY

For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he... (Proverbs 23:7).

Being born again, we belong to the household of faith. Our lineage is a lineage of faith. Galatians 3:9 says, "So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham." Therefore, we think differently. Our minds are governed by the Word of God.

For example, we don't go through life in fear of what Satan could do to us or against us. We know better. Satan is not a factor. He's a defeated foe and he's under our feet. We're joint-heirs with Christ, united with the One whom the Bible calls the Head over all principality and power.

Therefore, we live in the consciousness of our authority, dominion, and victory in Christ Jesus. The Bible says, "… For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil" (1 John 3:8). Hebrews 2:14-15 further declares, "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

When Jesus triumphed over Satan and the principalities and powers of darkness, we were in Him. His victory is our victory. This is why our response to life is different. We don't magnify problems; we magnify God. We don't yield to fear or discouragement because our confidence is in the Lord who has already given us the victory.

2 Corinthians 2:14 says, "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ…." This is our natural way of thinking; it's from the standpoint of our union with Christ. We see and think differently. We see ourselves as God sees us. We speak in agreement with His Word and act accordingly. That's the mentality of faith, and it's the mentality of continual victory.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for giving me the mind of Christ. My thinking is governed by your Word, and I see every circumstance from the standpoint of victory and glory. I live in the consciousness of my union with Christ, exercising dominion and walking in continual triumph every day, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

HIS RESURRECTION LIFE AT WORK IN YOU

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live (John 11:25).

Faith doesn't recognise impossibilities because it knows the One in whom it believes. Men may conclude that a situation is beyond remedy or that an opportunity has been lost forever but God isn't limited by time, human calculations or the seeming finality of circumstances. He gives life to the dead and calls those things which be not as though they were.

This was the faith that Abraham demonstrated. The Bible says he believed "...God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were" (Romans 4:17). Though his own body was now dead, being about a hundred years old, and Sarah's womb had long ceased to function, he refused to stagger at God's promise through unbelief.

Instead, he was strong in faith, giving glory to God, being fully persuaded that what God had promised, He was able also to perform (Romans 4:19-21). That's how faith thinks. It sees beyond natural limitations because it trusts in the God who gives life to the dead.

The account of Lazarus reveals this truth even more powerfully. When the Master was informed that Lazarus was sick, He waited four days before responding. By the time He arrived, Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days. To everyone around, it was over.

But Jesus wasn't moved by their conclusion because He wasn't merely bringing resurrection; He is the Resurrection and the Life. When He called, "Lazarus, come forth," death had no choice but to give way to life. His presence changed what men considered irreversible. The same Jesus lives in you today by the Holy Spirit.

The Resurrection and the Life isn't merely with you; He lives in you, and His victorious life is expressed in and through you. Therefore, never conclude that it's too late for God to act in your situation. Never allow circumstances to dictate your expectation. If He could call a dead man out of the grave after four days, there's no circumstance beyond His power and no situation beyond His ability to transform.

Keep your focus on Him and on His Word. Refuse to accept defeat, failure, or death. The One who conquered death lives in you, and His victory is your victory. His resurrection life is at work in you, producing victory, dominion, and endless possibilities.

PRAYER

Thank you, dear heavenly Father, for your resurrection life at work in me that produces victory, dominion and endless possibilities. I refuse to be limited by circumstances, time, or human reasoning. Nothing is impossible unto me because I walk in faith, manifesting your glory and righteousness, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF HIM

(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were (Romans 4:17).

Faith is far more than believing in God for a miracle; it's knowing the God in whom you've believed. The Bible says, "…the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits" (Daniel 11:32). The strength of your faith is rooted in your knowledge of God.

For example, Abraham didn't simply believe for a son; he believed in the God who gives life to the dead and calls those things which be not as though they were. Notice how the Apostle Paul describes God before describing Abraham's faith. He calls Him the One "...who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were" (Romans 4:17).

This is the God Abraham knew. He was fully persuaded that what God had promised, He was able also to perform (Romans 4:21). That's how faith thinks. It sees beyond natural limitations because it believes in the God who gives life to the dead.

This same God is your heavenly Father. He's not limited by time, circumstances or human impossibilities. He gives life where there is death and calls into being things that don't physically exist. Therefore, don't evaluate your situation by what you can see. Evaluate it in the light of who God is.

When you truly know Him, fear disappears, doubt gives way to confidence, and impossibilities are dispelled. Your faith rests, not on changing circumstances but on the unchanging character of God, on the integrity of His Word. Keep growing and increasing in your knowledge of Him.

Colossians 1:10 says, "That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God." The greater your revelation of God's nature and ability, the stronger and more unwavering your faith is. No wonder the Bible says in 2 Peter 3:18, "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ…."

PRAYER

Dear Father, you're the God who gives life to the dead and calls those things which be not as though they were. My faith is firmly established in your integrity, ability, and unfailing Word. Therefore, I walk in unwavering confidence, knowing that nothing is impossible unto me because I live by your Word. Amen.

BE INDUCED BY THE SPIRIT

And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit (Ephesians 5:18).

The Word of God wasn't given merely to inform you; it was given for your response. The Bible says, "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves" (James 1:22). One of God's clear instructions to every Christian is found in Ephesians 5:18: "And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit." This isn't a suggestion for a select few; it's God's will for every one of His children.

Notice how the Apostle Paul presents the instruction. First, he says, "…be not drunk with wine." The comparison isn't about wine itself; it's about control. The Greek expression describes someone so filled with drink that he's under its influence and governed by it. Then Paul immediately reveals the real point: don't be controlled by wine; rather, be filled with the Spirit to the control of the Spirit.

The focus isn't the drink but what should replace it. God wants you continually yielded to the influence, direction, and government of the Holy Spirit. This truth is also beautifully echoed in Romans 8:14: "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." The word translated "led" is the Greek verb "agō." It means to lead, guide, conduct, carry along, impel or induce.

This presents a beautiful picture of the Spirit-governed life. You're not expected to navigate life by mere human reasoning or natural instincts. You're to be continually induced by the Holy Spirit: directed by His wisdom, motivated by His power, and governed by His divine influence in everything you do.

This is the secret to a supernatural life. When you're continually under the Holy Spirit's influence, you see beyond natural limitations and respond from the realm of the Spirit. Your decisions, words, and actions are inspired by Him. You're no longer confined to the ordinary plane of life because the Holy Spirit enables you to think God's thoughts, see from His perspective, and walk in continual victory.

Yield yourself to the Holy Spirit through the Word, prayer and fellowship with Him. As you do, you'll find yourself continually induced by His presence, living above the ordinary and manifesting the life and glory of Christ everywhere.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the gift and ministry of the Holy Spirit in my life. I yield myself completely to His influence, guidance and government. I'm continually induced by the Spirit in my thoughts, words and actions, walking in wisdom, power and the supernatural, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

LIVE FROM A HIGHER PLANE

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God (Romans 8:14).

The Christian life isn't meant to be lived from the standpoint of the flesh or the senses. The two verses preceding our opening scripture say, "So then, brethren, we are debtors, but not to the flesh [we are not obligated to our carnal nature], to live [a life ruled by the standards set up by the dictates] of the flesh. For if you live according to [the dictates of] the flesh, you will surely die…" (Romans 8:12-13 AMPC).

God didn't call you to live or see life merely from the natural plane or respond to circumstances according to sensory perceptions. Through the Holy Spirit, you've been brought into a higher realm where you can see things God's way, think His thoughts, and judge all things from the vantage point of His Word.

Many Christians struggle because they continue to evaluate life with natural reasoning. But life is spiritual and man is a spirit as God is a Spirit. Therefore, we're called to live the Spirit-filled life. The Holy Spirit elevates your perception. He opens your eyes to realities beyond the senses and enables you to discern God's thoughts, purpose, perfect will, and direction in every situation.

The Bible says, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God" (Romans 8:14). The Holy Spirit doesn't merely direct your steps; He transforms the way you think and perceive. He enables you to see what others don't see, hear what others don't hear, and understand Kingdom realities in a way that you can put them to work in your life.

No wonder the Bible says, "...But we have the mind of Christ" (1 Corinthians 2:16). Through the Holy Spirit, you've been given the capacity to think in agreement with God. This higher perspective changes everything: Challenges no longer intimidate you because you see them as opportunities to manifest the glory of God and as platforms for your promotion.

Through fellowship with the Holy Spirit and meditation on the Word, your spiritual perception becomes sharper, and your life increasingly reflects God's wisdom, excellence, and victory. The limitations that discourage others no longer define your expectations.

1 John 4:4 says, "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world." As your mind is continually yielded to the greater One who lives in you, you rise and glide gloriously over and above the corrupting influences of this world. Choose to live from this higher plane. Glory to God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for giving me the Holy Spirit, who opens my eyes to your truths and enables me to see life from your perspective. My thoughts are aligned with your Word, and I'm continually guided by your wisdom. I see beyond the natural realm and walk in your truth and perfection, manifesting your glory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE SPIRITUAL MAN JUDGES ALL THINGS

But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man (1 Corinthians 2:15).

The Bible contrasts the natural man with the spiritual man in 1 Corinthians 2:14, saying, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." Then, in the 15th verse, it gives us one of the fascinating attributes of the spiritual man: he discerns or judges all things.

Being born again, you're not the natural man trying to understand spiritual realities; you're the spiritual man, endowed by God with the ability to judge and discern all things. This is the outworking of the wisdom of Christ in your spirit. It's the expression of the divine wisdom you've received in Christ.

The Bible says, "But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom..." (1 Corinthians 1:30). Therefore, you're to walk in the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. This is why you should never act confused, perturbed or overwhelmed by the circumstances of life.

Christ, the embodiment of divine wisdom and knowledge, lives in you. You're a package of solutions and answers. You know all things (1 John 2:20). When things happen around you, don't say, "Why is this happening to me?" or try to figure life out through natural reasoning.

Rather, respond with divine wisdom. Cast all your cares upon the Lord and stick to His Word. Always be conscious that the wisdom of God is at work in your spirit, giving you discernment, insight, and the right response in every circumstance. Walk in confidence and certainty, knowing that you have the light of life.

You walk in the light of God's Word with great amplitude of mind and comprehension, quick to judge all things. And judging all things means knowing and walking in the perfect will of the Father, making decisions from His perspective and manifesting His excellence in every area of your life.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for making Christ my wisdom. I walk in the consciousness of who I am in Christ, judging all things by your Spirit. I'm never confused, worried, or overwhelmed because your wisdom is alive in my spirit, giving me discernment and guiding me in the path of victory and excellence every day, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 20

ABSOLUTE VICTORY EVERY DAY

Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place (2 Corinthians 2:14).

Your life as a Christian isn't designed to fluctuate between victory and defeat. God's desire isn't for you to have occasional good days interrupted by difficult ones. His plan is for you to live in an unending stream of victories. The Message version describes it as a perpetual victory parade: "...In the Messiah, in Christ, God leads us from place to place in one perpetual victory parade..." (2 Corinthians 2:14).

It's also one of the reasons for being filled with the Spirit. When you're full of the Holy Spirit, you have a different consciousness because the Holy Spirit governs your thoughts, words and actions. You see only victory. You're always and only conscious of the glory of God.

When you're full of the Spirit, it shows in your language. Instead of speaking defeat, discouragement, or uncertainty, you speak faith and victory. You look at your future with confidence because the Holy Spirit has filled your heart with God's vision. Rather than focusing on obstacles, you see possibilities. You encourage yourself in the Lord and declare, "I'm a success; I win every day. My future is glorious. My path shines brighter and brighter unto the perfect day." Hallelujah!

Never accept the world's idea or philosophy that everyone has bad days and good days. Don't adopt the mentality that some days are destined for failure while others are reserved for success. That's not your life in Christ. Every day is another opportunity to manifest the victory Christ has already given you.

Read our opening scripture again and notice the word “always.” Your victories aren't occasional; they're perpetual because your triumph is in Christ. Don't give Satan a chance to dictate your experiences or define your expectations. You're an absolute victor twenty-four hours a day, every day of the week, every day of the year.

Therefore, maintain the consciousness of victory. Stay full of the Holy Spirit through fellowship with the Word and prayer, and let your words consistently reflect the life of triumph that's already yours in Christ.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for filling me with your Holy Spirit and causing me always to triumph in Christ. I refuse every mentality of defeat, limitation or discouragement. My words are filled with faith, my heart is full of joy, and I walk in perpetual victory every day, manifesting your glory everywhere, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WHAT GOD HAS WROUGHT

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them (Ephesians 2:10).

Never underestimate what God has done in your life through Christ. You're not an ordinary person trying to obtain God's favour; you're His workmanship, recreated in Christ Jesus for a life of glory, victory, and excellence. This is your identity, and it explains why no force of darkness can successfully prevail against you.

In the Old Testament, Balaam was hired to curse Israel, but every attempt failed. Instead of a curse, blessings came forth from his mouth because God had already blessed His people. Balaam finally declared, "Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought!" (Numbers 23:23).

What was said of Israel under the Old Covenant finds its greater fulfilment in you today. The Apostle Paul declares, "For we are his workmanship...." (Ephesians 2:10). You're God's handiwork, His masterpiece, recreated in Christ Jesus. Therefore, your life is the evidence of what God has wrought. His life, nature, wisdom, and righteousness are expressed in and through you.

This is why no enchantment, no divination, and no scheme of darkness can overturn God's blessings and purpose for your life. His blessings in your life are the result of His finished redemptive work in Christ. Ephesians 1:3 says, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ."

1 Peter 3:9 declares, "Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing." You've been called to inherit a blessing and to be a blessing to your world. Therefore, don't be intimidated by opposition or become preoccupied with those who oppose you.

When people reject or despise you, they only place themselves at a disadvantage because the blessing upon your life proceeds from God. Your responsibility is to continue walking in love and manifesting His goodness everywhere. Walk confidently in your divine identity.

You're the proof of God's equity, the expression of what He has wrought through Christ Jesus. Everywhere you go, His blessings are manifested in and through you. Your life is His testimony and the living evidence of His grace, wisdom and power.

CONFESSION

My life is the expression of God's grace, wisdom and power. I walk in the consciousness of His blessings in my life, knowing that no force of darkness can prevail against me. Through me, God's goodness and glory are manifested to my world, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

HIS FULLNESS

And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all (Ephesians 1:22-23).

Perhaps you haven't fully understood this remarkable truth: The Father so ordained His eternal purpose that the Lord Jesus doesn't have His complete expression aside from the Church. This is God's divine plan. He needs us as we need Him. He's our glory as we are His glory. The Bible says He is the Head of the Body, and the Body is the Church.

This is the revelation the Apostle Paul prayed for the Christians in Ephesus to grasp in Ephesians 1. He prayed that the Father of glory would grant them the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Christ, that the eyes of their understanding would be enlightened to know the hope of God's calling, the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe.

Then he unveiled the climax of that prayer: though Christ has been raised far above all principality, power, might, dominion, and every name that is named, He gave the headship of all to the Church, "Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all" (Ephesians 1:23). Think about that. The One who fills all things has a fullness, and that fullness is the Church.

The Church is "the fullness of Him." What a profound mystery! We are His completeness. Glory to God! This is God's own description of our union with Christ. We aren't merely associated with Him or working for Him from a distance; we are His Body, the expression of His life, glory, and presence in the earth.

This is why you should never think of yourself as insignificant or alienated from Christ. You're inseparably one with Him. His life is expressed through you, and His purpose is fulfilled through you. Understand how important you are in Christ and live every day with the consciousness of your oneness with Him. You're part of His fullness, and through you, His glory is manifested to the world.

CONFESSION

I'm a vital member of the Body of Christ. I live with the consciousness of my inseparable union with Christ, and I express His life, glory, and power to my world. Christ is my life, my glory, and my all, and I am His completeness. Through me, His purpose is fulfilled, and His presence is manifested everywhere, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FELLOWSHIP, PARTNERSHIP AND DISTRIBUTION

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen (2 Corinthians 13:14).

The word translated "communion" in our opening scripture is the Greek "koinōnia," and it carries three important meanings: fellowship, partnership, and distribution. These three are connected: fellowship gives birth to partnership, and partnership gives birth to distribution.

Fellowship with the Holy Spirit is much more than speaking in tongues. It means recognising Him and walking with Him as a person. When you recognise the Holy Spirit and cultivate fellowship with Him, He brings you into partnership with Himself. You can't fellowship with Him without His influence and impact becoming evident in your home, your job, your finances, and everything that concerns you.

There are things that concern you which you may know nothing about but He'll perfect them for your good. The psalmist said, "The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me..." (Psalm 138:8). That includes your health. He keeps you in divine health. It's part of His ministry in your life.

God demonstrated this principle in His relationship with Abraham. He said to him, "...I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect" (Genesis 17:1). He was calling Abraham into fellowship: "Walk with Me."

Then He said, "And I will make my covenant between me and thee..." (Genesis 17:2); that's partnership. God would become Abraham's partner, and Abraham would become God's partner.

Then came the result of that partnership in the concluding part of that verse: "...and will multiply thee exceedingly." That's distribution. Through Abraham, the blessing of God would impact nations and generations. It's the same with us today. Remember what the Bible says, "...I will bless thee...and thou shalt be a blessing" (Genesis 12:2).

This was promised to Abraham and his seed, which is Christ, and the Bible says, "...if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise" (Galatians 3:29). His grace, wisdom, power, and blessings flow through you to your world.

You can't truly walk in fellowship with the Holy Spirit without something happening through your life. It doesn't matter where you are or what you do; there will be a distribution. Through your partnership with Him, lives are changed, needs are met, and God's glory is manifested. Blessed be God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the communion of the Holy Spirit which I graciously enjoy. I recognise the Holy Spirit as a person and cultivate an intimate fellowship with Him, walking in partnership with Him, with His grace, wisdom, power, and blessings distributed through me to impact my world, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world (John 17:16).

Here's something you must understand: you're not of this world even though you live in this world. You're from above. The Lord Jesus made this clear; He chose you out of this world and brought you into a new nation, the Kingdom of God. And as a citizen of this Kingdom, you're to live by the principles of heaven, not by the systems and limitations of this world.

This Kingdom isn't defined by geographical boundaries, languages, or cultures. It's a heavenly nation with citizens in every part of the world. That's why, wherever you are, you're never alone. You're part of God's Kingdom, united with fellow citizens who share the same life, the same purpose, and the same Lord (Ephesians 2:19).

What a privilege to belong to a nation without borders! Every citizen of this Kingdom is a champion. You weren't called into God's Kingdom to live an ordinary or defeated life. You were born to reign. The question is whether you'll be a “sleeping” champion or a reigning champion. At every level and every stage of your life, you can be a success.

In our nation, we don't accept failure or limitation. We win always; we triumph from glory to glory. Wherever we are, we establish a Kingdom headquarters of operation and win; we influence others and change their lives. So, be it in your home, office, school, business environment, or community, you're an ambassador of the Kingdom. That's your sphere of Kingdom influence.

Through you, the values, righteousness, love, and power of God's Kingdom are manifested to those around you; the Kingdom is at work in and through you. God is accomplishing His purpose through you without limits. The earth belongs to Him and everything in it. Therefore, think beyond natural boundaries and see yourself as a citizen of God's Kingdom, a reigning champion, and an ambassador of His glory to your world.

CONFESSION

I'm not of this world; I'm a citizen of heaven, living by the principles of God's Word. I reign as a champion in life, and wherever I am, I expand the Kingdom, and the Kingdom is also expanded in and through me. I establish a Kingdom headquarters of operation and influence others with the life and principles of the Kingdom of God. Hallelujah!

WE DON'T FAIL

For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world... (1 John 5:4).

Notice that our opening scripture says whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world. That includes "whosoever"; anything that comes out of God overcomes the world. You're born of God. You received His life and nature into your being when you were born again. Therefore, you're a world-overcomer.

That's your identity because you're God's reproduction: "Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth…" (James 1:18). This is why you must never define yourself by your earthly background, environment, or human limitations. Rather, always declare who you are in Christ: You're excellent. You're smart. You're a success. This isn't about comparing yourself with anyone else; it's about acknowledging who God has made you.

Excellence is your nature because you're born of the Excellent One. His wisdom is at work in you; that's why we don't fail. Notice I didn't say, "We can't fail"; rather, we don't fail because failure is inconsistent with our nature.

The life of God in you produces success and victory only. His wisdom is at work in you continually, causing you to prevail in every situation. You're not only someone who has solutions; you're a solution. Wherever you are, the wisdom of God is present because you're there.

The question then might be, how do these truths become your daily experience? It's through meditation on the Word. As you consistently meditate on God's Word, it's absorbed into your spirit until it becomes your mentality.

Read the principle in Joshua 1:8, "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." When you meditate on God's truths, you won't struggle to think God's thoughts because His Word has transformed your thinking. That's why the Scriptures tell us to renew our minds: "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind…" (Romans 12:2).

Refuse every thought of failure, weakness, inability, or deficiency. Don't allow your upbringing, nationality, family history, or past experiences define your expectations. You're born of God. His life is in you. You were born a success, a solution to your generation. Glory to God!

Dear Father, thank you for giving me the life and nature of success, victory, and dominion. Your wisdom is at work in me, and I walk in excellence, because your divine life is in me. Through your Word, my mind is continually renewed, and I manifest your glory everywhere, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YOU'RE TRACED TO CHRIST

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Oftentimes, people try to explain their lives by tracing their family history. They search through generations, looking for ancestral traits, reasons they are the way they are. But the Bible says, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Your life isn't defined by your ancestry or your natural lineage. The moment you were born again, everything changed. Your natural human life was supplanted by God's divine life. All things became new.

Perhaps there might have been admirable qualities in your natural or earthly family; you can appreciate them as a good thing that came from God, for the Bible says, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above..." (James 1:17). But never accept weakness, fear, sickness, failure, or any other limitation as part of your inheritance. God isn't tracing your life to your earthly ancestry; He traces you to Christ.

The Scriptures reveal that there are two Adams. "... The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit" (1 Corinthians 15:45). The first Adam became the head of the fallen human race, for through his transgression, sin and death entered the world (Romans 5:12). But God brought forth another Adam, the Lord Jesus Christ, who became the Head of a new creation.

Thus, when you received Christ, your old life ended. It was judged in His death, and when He was raised from the dead, you received His resurrection life. No wonder the Bible says, "...if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:17).

This is why you must see yourself differently. You're not defined by where you came from naturally but by Christ, the second and last Adam, the One from whom you've now been born. You've become a partaker of the divine nature (2 Peter 1:4). Therefore, refuse every negative label, every inherited limitation, and every weakness that contradicts your nature and identity in Christ.

CONFESSION

I'm a new creation in Christ Jesus. My life is perfected in Christ Jesus, in righteousness and true holiness. I'm not defined by the first Adam but by the Lord Jesus Christ, the head of the new creation. I walk in the reality of my new life in Christ, free to serve the Lord joyfully and manifest His life, glory, wisdom, and righteousness, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 27

ONLY THE LORD JESUS MADE IT POSSIBLE

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 2:5).

Christianity isn't another religion; it's God's answer for the salvation of the world. That's why our message isn't about increasing the size of a religion but bringing men and women into fellowship with God through the Lord Jesus Christ. He alone could bridge the gap between a holy God and sinful man. No religion can offer that fellowship.

Through the ages, men have offered sacrifices upon sacrifices, hoping to appease God. But the Bible says, "For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Hebrews 10:4). Animal sacrifices could never cleanse man's conscience or impart eternal life. Something infinitely greater was required: a perfect sacrifice acceptable to God Himself, and Jesus was that sacrifice.

The Bible says, "…after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified" (Hebrews 10:12 & 14). Blessed be God! God had already revealed His plan in the Garden of Eden. After man's fall, He declared that the seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head (Genesis 3:15).

What an extraordinary prophecy! A woman doesn't have seed, yet God spoke of the Seed of the woman because He was announcing the coming of the Redeemer.

Centuries later, that prophecy was fulfilled (Luke 1:35). Jesus came into the world by divine conception—sinless and untouched by Adam's fallen nature.

How did God accomplish this miracle? Jesus Christ Himself gives us the answer. Explaining the parable of the sower, He said, "...The seed is the word of God" (Luke 8:11). God's Word became the life-giving Seed by which the virgin conceived (see Luke 1:45). Then, "...the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us..." (John 1:14).

Christ came, took our place, bore our sins, died our death, and was raised again so that everyone who believes in Him might receive His life and be brought into oneness with the Father. This is the uniqueness of Christianity. Through Jesus Christ, we've been reconciled to God and brought into living fellowship with Him.

As the Apostle John writes, "...truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ" (1 John 1:3). What religion could never accomplish, God accomplished through His Son, Jesus Christ. Now the Bible says, "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:39). Blessed truth!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for your immeasurable love demonstrated in Jesus Christ. I rejoice that I'm a new creature, in living fellowship with you through Jesus Christ. I walk in the reality of this divine union and proclaim this glorious Gospel to my world, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SATURDAY 28

BEYOND RELIGION

That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ (1 John 1:3).

While religion represents man's effort to reach God through rituals, ceremonies, and personal works, Christianity holds that God reaches out to man through Jesus Christ. This is the very heart of Christianity: fellowship with the Father through the Lord Jesus Christ.

His death, burial, and resurrection didn't merely secure the forgiveness of our sins but made it possible for us to become one with God. He reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 5:18). This was so we could share His life, know Him intimately and enjoy eternal fellowship with Him. This is far beyond religion; it's the reality of sonship.

No wonder the Apostle John declares, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God..." (1 John 3:2). In Christ, we're born God's children: "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ…" (Romans 8:17). We're in a living union with divinity. This fellowship is more than occasional communion; it's participation in His life, His righteousness, His wisdom, and His glory. It's the daily consciousness that Christ lives in you and that you're inseparably one with Him.

In the death of the Lord Jesus, the veil was removed and the way into God's presence was opened. The Bible says, "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh…Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith..." (Hebrews 10:19-22).

We're not afar off in the outer court, hoping to be accepted or brought into God's presence. The Lord Jesus was our new and living way into God's presence. We were born into God's presence and have been accepted of Him: "To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved" (Ephesians 1:6).

In Christ Jesus, we've been given unhindered access to the Father: "For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father" (Ephesians 2:18). This is the essence of Christianity; it's the glorious reality of living in unbroken fellowship with the Father through Jesus Christ.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for calling me into fellowship with your Son, Jesus Christ. I rejoice in the privilege of knowing you intimately and walking in unbroken communion with you every day. I live in the consciousness of our divine union, expressing your life, wisdom and glory to my world, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SUNDAY 29

FELLOWSHIP WITH THE SPIRIT

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen (2 Corinthians 13:14).

Christianity is a call to fellowship with the Godhead: the Father, the Son (Jesus Christ), and the Holy Spirit. This is the biggest thing about our relationship with God. The Bible says, "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord" (1 Corinthians 1:9).

The Apostle John reiterates the same truth when he writes, "...truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ" (1 John 1:3). What an extraordinary calling! Now, the Father is in heaven, and the Lord Jesus is in heaven, for the Scriptures tell us that after His resurrection, He ascended into heaven and went to the Father, where He's seated at His right hand.

Yet, the Bible says we've been called into fellowship with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. Therefore, how do you enjoy that fellowship as a living, daily experience? It's through the communion of the Holy Spirit.

Notice what the Spirit, through the Apostle Paul, says in our opening scripture. He shows us what we enjoy from each member of the Godhead. In 2 Corinthians 13:14 (NKJV), He declares: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen." This is so important because Christianity without the fellowship of the Holy Spirit would be another dead religion. Through this fellowship, the Holy Spirit makes the presence of the Father and the presence of Jesus real to you. You discover that God doesn't come to you and He doesn't leave you. You're in Him, and He's in you by the Holy Spirit.

When you were born again, you were immersed into Christ by the Holy Spirit. Then that same Holy Spirit came to live in you. Now, the words of Jesus have become your truth: "...I am in the Father, and the Father in me..." (John 14:10). What a glorious reality!

Cultivate rich fellowship with the Holy Spirit. Recognise His indwelling presence, listen to His voice, and act on His Word. Through Him, you continually enjoy the living relationship and experience with the Father and the Son, Jesus Christ.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for calling me into fellowship with you and with your Son, Jesus Christ. I enjoy this glorious fellowship today through the Holy Spirit who lives in me. I walk continually in the consciousness of His indwelling presence, and my life is the manifestation of your wisdom, grace and glory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

MONDAY 30

NO LONGER SEPARATED FROM GOD

But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you… (Isaiah 59:2).

When the Lord Jesus went to the Cross, the greatest agony He endured wasn't the physical pain of crucifixion. Before His physical death came spiritual death—separation from the Father. That's what God seeks to save man from; not physical death, but spiritual death. Spiritual death isn't the cessation of existence; it's separation from God.

Every living thing must remain connected to its source to live. Fish belong in water; once separated from it, they die. Plants draw their life from the soil; uproot them, and they wither. In the same way, man is a spirit being whose source is God. Your physical body is simply the house in which your spirit lives and expresses itself in this physical world.

Therefore, to be separated from God is to be cut off from the very source of life. This explains the Lord Jesus' deep anguish in the Garden of Gethsemane. Knowing what lay ahead, He prayed, "...if it be possible, let this cup pass from me..." (Matthew 26:39).

It wasn't the nails or the Cross that He dreaded. Rather, for the first time, He would experience separation from the Father as He bore the sins of the whole world. When that moment finally came, and the sins of humanity were laid upon Him, He cried, "...My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:46).

He was experiencing the separation that belonged to us. He accepted our place so that we would never have to remain separated from God. What extraordinary love! Through His sacrifice, everyone who believes is brought into eternal union and fellowship with the Father.

Today, you're no longer cut off from the source of life. You're joined to the Lord and have become one spirit with Him. His life is in you. You're forever connected to your source, and from that union flows divine life, righteousness, faith, hope, love, strength, purpose, and victory.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for your immeasurable love demonstrated through the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus. Thank you for bringing me into eternal union with you. I'm forever grateful that I'm inseparably one with you, the source of my life, and I walk in the consciousness of this eternal fellowship as I express your life, glory, and righteousness to my world, in Jesus' Name. PRAYER OF SALVATION

We trust you have been blessed by this devotional. We invite you to make Jesus Christ the Lord of your life by praying thus:

"O Lord God, I believe with all my heart in Jesus Christ, Son of the living God. I believe He died for me and God raised Him from the dead. I believe He's alive today. I confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life from this day. Through Him and in His Name, I have eternal life; I'm born again. Thank you, Lord, for saving my soul! I'm now a child of God. Hallelujah!"

7 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD GO TO CHURCH

As a Christian, it's important for you to identify with a local assembly, a church you can call your HOME and participate fully in its activities. Here are some of the reasons you must go to church:

1. God Said So
God desires His children to attend church meetings. The admonition is clear in Hebrews 10:25 for us not to forsake the assembly of the brethren.

2. The Lord Jesus Did, Showing Us A Pattern To Follow
Jesus had a culture of going to "church." It was part of His personal discipline and devotion (Luke 4:16).

3. It's The Vehicle By Which You Function In The Body Of Christ
The local assembly is a microcosm of the spiritual Body of Christ. You function in that Body by functioning in the local assembly.

4. The Church Is The Pillar And Ground Of Truth (1 Timothy 3:15)
The Church is the pillar and ground of Truth where you're taught the Word of God. The teaching of God's Word is crucial for victorious living.

5. The Church Is A Place Of Fellowship With Other Christians
Fellowship with other Christians is essential to the growth of a Christian. We sharpen ourselves as we fellowship together in church.

6. The Church Is A Place Where Christian Growth And Character Are Enhanced
God ordained certain offices in the Church for the benefit of the Christian; for growth, and to sharpen his spiritual development (Ephesians 4:11-16).

7. The Church Is A Place Of Training
The Church is a place where discipline is imparted. God sets instructors who are able to instruct you in the truth and help you culture your life.

"The Word of God in Action: A Miraculous Testimony!"

I once was diagnosed with severe atrial fibrillation. My heart had been beating at a dangerously high rate, and this was a major concern to my family. I went for a procedure at the hospital and held on to my Rhapsody of Realities, trusting God. During the operation, my heart stopped, and doctors shocked me repeatedly, but could not restart it. I was dead for hours. Then, miraculously, I opened my eyes! The nurse cried, "Doctor, he's alive!" I held my Rhapsody and cried, "Thank You, Lord Jesus!" God restored my life.

"My Testimony of Divine Protection!"

I used to work in an Arab country where there was a ban on Christian activities. As a passionate preacher of the Gospel, I was unfazed by this ban, and continued preaching and distributing Rhapsody of Realities. I was arrested, convicted, and sentenced to death by firing squad. At the execution site, I remembered the instruction from God's Word to pray in tongues during difficult times. As the bullets were fired, I continued praying. Then I heard a police officer shout, "Stop! Stand up!" I opened my eyes and discovered the bullets had not penetrated my body. I know the Holy Spirit protected and delivered me. I will continue preaching the Gospel all my life.

"A Journey of Faith, Impact, and Divine Protection!"

I thank God for the inspiration, instruction and innovation I have received through Rhapsody of Realities. I encountered Rhapsody in 2002 and began sponsoring copies in 2006. Every year, I progressed from sponsoring ten to tens of thousands of copies. In March 2024, while travelling from Benin Republic to Lagos with hundreds of copies, our vehicle skidded off the road into a lake. We survived unharmed. After the car was retrieved, six volunteers and the policeman involved gave their lives to Christ. Today, Rhapsody is our company's mandatory morning devotion and corporate culture.
